on availability of vacancies in various establishments of NCERT.

In the last two years twenty transfers of academic staff have been made.

Committee for KVs & NVs

2189. SHRI KA. RA. SUBBIAN:
PROF. M. SANKARALINGAM:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether any expert committee has been set up to make Centrally funded educational institutions like Kendriya Vidyalayas and Navodaya Vidyalayas efficient and effective;

(b) if so, the salient features of such a committee; and

(c) if not, whether Government would set up a committee to make the above institutions more efficient and effective?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (DR. MURLI MANOHAR JOSHI): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) The Committee for NVs is headed by a former Secretary to the Government of India, Shri Y.N. Chaturvedi and consists of five members while the Committee for KVs is headed by a former Secretary to the Governemnt of India, Shri J.C. Pant and consists of six members. These Committees are to review the management structure and operating mechanism of these two institutions and also suggest appropriate changes on the academic front including review of admission policy and need for expansion their structural changes the need for appropriate admix of the examination-oriented education, promotion of sports, yoga, physical education and language learning etc.

(c) Does not arise.